Dear Stan:

This is to confirm our recent telephone conversation with my hope that you would be available to address a community-wide luncheon or dinner program sponsored by the San Diego Chamber of Commerce, which I currently serve as president.

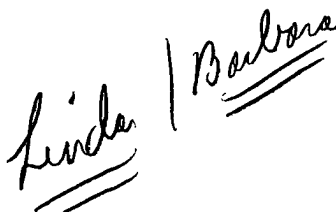

The Chamber organization has assumed a key leadership position in articulating the perspective of the business community in Southern California. Part of its role has been to develop and implement a series of important addresses by prominent Americans, including former President Gerald R. Ford and Nobel Laureate Dr. Milton Friedman. In coming weeks we also hope to have Supreme Court Justice William Rehnquist and futurist Herman Kahn as speakers in this series.

Specifically, we would be delighted if you could become a key member of this series by addressing the Chamber membership in late Summer or early Fall. We would invite other community organizations, including the San Diego Council of the Navy League, to co-sponsor this function, thus assuring a large and cross-sectional audience for your presentation.

I hope that the above suggestion will fit into your very demanding schedule, and look forward to hearing from you soon. In the meantime, Joan joins me in sending best regards to you and your family.

Sincerely,

Richard G. Capen, Jr.
